I am a financial supporter of KLOVE Christian Radio because of the positive, Chritian message they send. I am strongly against the station being displaced by an LPFM broadcaster as I feel that there is nothing more important than worshiping the Lord in everything you do. The station is not a religious push rather encouraging, fun music with a positive message. I personally made plenty of stupid mistakes in my youth and if I had been listening to a station like KLOVE my choices would have been different. Sincerely, Mikelle Ives
